

LA TEST FIGURES SHOWING THE LANDSLIDE ELECTION RESULTS

510,000 votes. Koenig got approximately 149,000 votes, and Iselin, straight Republican, 112,000.

Democrats Get 51 On Alderman Board.

Final returns give the Democrats 51 members of the Board of Aldermen, 16 from Manhattan, 8 from the Bronx, 19 from Brooklyn, 5 from Queens, and 3 from Richmond. The Republicans have 8 from Manhattan, 4 from Brooklyn and 1 from Queens. A combination of Republicans and Democrats returned one Alderman from Brooklyn.

The Greater City will be represented in the Assembly by 45 Democrats and 5 members elected on a combination Democratic and Republican ticket. The Republican representation from Greater New York has been cut to 12 members.

Tammany leaders, commenting on the result to-day, expressed the opinion that William Randolph Hearst will probably claim the credit for the Hyman victory and attempt to exact, as the price of it, the nomination for United States Senator next year. Tammany's candidate for that office is Ex-Governor Smith.

Comptroller Craig Re-elected by 249,072.

Comptroller Craig, against whom the hardest fight was made by Senator Lockwood, received a plurality of 249,072.

Murray Hulbert, candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen, received a plurality of 268,728. Thus the city ticket nominated by Tammany won by pluralities ranging from a quarter of a million votes up.

That it was Democratic weather and the victory was in the air evincently as a protest against Republican State and National Government is evidenced by the vote for Justice Townsend Scudder for the Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals. Justice Scudder carried the greater city by 261,975. Up-State reports are to the effect that Justice Andrews, the Republican candidate, has carried the State by a sufficient plurality to offset the enormous vote in the city and his election is claimed by the Republicans by 50,000 to 75,000.

The vote rolled up by the Mayor will be better appreciated when it is compared with that of "Al" Smith for Governor last year. At that time Smith received 709,251 as against 889,353 for Governor Miller. Smith's plurality was a trifle short of 320,000. Mayor Hyman, in an off year, polled 45,000 votes more than Smith, who made a record. His plurality is a little short of being a hundred thousand more than Gov. Smith's.

Mayor Hyman beat Gov. Smith's vote in every borough of the city. In Brooklyn there was a surprise for Sheriff, where Seery, the Republican candidate, was 12,000 votes ahead of Laura, the Democratic candidate, with 277 Election Districts to be heard from.

The Coalitionists to-day are unable to account for the landslide. They felt in a way that it was coming, but did not know how big it was going to be. Through the election Tammany Hall increases its majority in the Board of Aldermen. It also gains control of the office of the Borough President of Manhattan and the Presidency of the Board of Aldermen, something the Hall has not had for two years.

Mayor Hyman, glorifying his amazing victory, interpreted it as a stinging rebuke to the newspapers that had opposed him and a sufficient answer to political enemies who had assailed him so bitterly during the campaign.

Running mates of Mr. Hyman, taking their cue from him, issued statements in line with the Mayor's, even Tammany Leader Murphy declaring that it was the newspapers that materially assisted in making the voter's tribute to Hyman so handsome in character.

Miss Mathews Polls a Big Vote.

One of the election results unanticipated was the unusual strength developed by Miss Annie Mathews, successful Democratic candidate for Register of New York County. For days it has been predicted that the women's vote would be split between Miss Mathews and her Republican opponent, Helen Varick Boswell, while the bulk of the men's vote would go to John J. Hopper and probably elect him.

On the late returns Miss Mathews's plurality over Miss Boswell was approaching 80,000, while the vote given to Mr. Hopper appeared so small as to indicate he might run behind the Prohibition candidate.

Tammany's election of the entire Board of Estimate, assuring it of the full 16 votes, gives Murphy a check on Hyman should he become too independent. He will have strength enough in the board to outvote the Mayor on any proposition on which the two may clash.

For the last two years the Tammany-Hyman Administration has had only 11 votes in the Board of Estimate. Curran, as Borough President, had 2 votes and Aldermanic President La Guardia 3.

The election result brings only three new faces into the Board of Estimate, those of Hulbert as Aldermanic President, Miller as President of Manhattan Borough and Cahill as President of Richmond Borough.

The re-election of Maurice E. Connelly as President of the Borough of Queens was accomplished in the face of a bitter factional fight, in which disgruntled Democrats threw their strength to Edgar F. Hazelton. Connelly remains as the undisputed Democratic boss of Queens.

Matthew J. Cahill, who defeated Cromwell, will be indexed as a Hyman man. Recently when a row broke out in the ranks of the Staten Island Democrats, Hyman threw his influence on the side of Cahill, who from that time was recognized as the Democratic boss of the smallest borough.

Tammany Carries Queens and Richmond.

From the outset of the campaign the only doubtful spots from the Tammany viewpoint were in Queens and Richmond. There was, therefore, additional rejoicing last night when it was seen that both had been saved.

For the third consecutive time Tammany finds itself entrenched in the New York County District Attorney's office. The Coalitionists, if they felt certain of anything, believed that their candidate, John Kirkland Clark, would dispose of Joab H. Banton, the Tammany selection for the place now held by Edward Swann. Banton's election means "The Hall" will continue to recommend organization men for the numerous lucrative appointments in the Criminal Courts Building, as Banton has been a member of the organization for years and believes in the theory that "efficiency is gained through organization."

With only meagre returns on the Judgeship contests in Manhattan it was assumed that all Democratic candidates for General Sessions had been carried along in the Hyman current. They are Mulqueen, Talley and Mancuso. City Court Judges La Fetra and Valente were also reported as certain winners.

Mitchell May, certain to be elected to the other Justiceship in the Second District, had a 12,000 margin in Suffolk and a 10,000 one in Brooklyn.

The boasted Socialist strength in Bronx failed to materialize, and the plurality for Flynn, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff; District Attorney Glennon, who was a candidate for the post to which he was appointed last year by Gov. Smith, and the other Tammany candidates seemed sure to reach proportions undreamed by the most optimistic follower of Arthur Murphy, the Tammany satrap in New York's newest county.

BIG TIM MURPHY IS FOUND GUILTY IN MAIL ROBBERY

Convicted With Three Others of Plotting Haul That Netted $360,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—"Big Tim" Murphy, union leader, former State Representative and alleged gunman, was found guilty today in Judge Kenesaw M. Landis's court of plotting the $360,000 mail robbery at Dearborn Station last April. Vincenzo Cosmano, union President and protégé of Murphy; Edward Getrom, alleged driver of the bandits' car; and Paul Volanti also were convicted.

The jury spent all last night locked in the Court House, reaching a verdict at 1 o'clock this morning. The case closed yesterday afternoon with heated arguments. Senator Barbour, for the defense, asked that the testimony of Ralph Peter and E. H. Bradford, two former mail clerks, who confessed and testified for the Government, be disregarded.

Peter Guseburg, another defendant, escaped and has not been apprehended.
